Exclusively for patrons of the Easter Festival:
Trip to Rome

31 October - 3 November 2023

Join us for a visit with the resident orchestra of the 2024 Easter Festival:

The Accademia Nazionale di Santa Cecilia conducted by Maestro Antonio Pappano.

On the day of arrival (Tuesday), the Intendant of the Easter Festival Nikolaus Bachler will welcome you personally at the Sofitel Roma Villa Borghese. Afterwards, a musical intermezzo with musicians from the Accademia Nazionale di Santa Cecilia awaits you at an extraordinary venue, followed by a special menu.

On Wednesday you will start the day with an exclusive guided tour of the city and afterwards enjoy lunch in a Roman trattoria. In the afternoon, a part of the orchestra of the Accademia Nazionale di Santa Cecilia will play a private concert in a very special setting. In the evening, you will enjoy an exquisite three-course dinner.

Thursday morning begins with a visit to the Galleria Doria Pamphilj, an art history museum. After a small meal in a unique location in Rome, you will have the opportunity to explore the city on your own. In the evening, the highlight of the trip will take place: You'll be welcomed with an aperitif at the Accademia Nazionale di Santa Cecilia's MUSA Museum of Musical Instruments, where you'll receive a guided tour and concert introduction before Sir Antonio Pappano, longtime principal conductor of the Accademia Nazionale di Santa Cecilia, raises his baton for one of the concert highlights of the year, featuring music by Strauss, Beethoven, Cherubini and Sibelius. The soloist of the evening is star pianist Igor Levit. Finally, a brilliant dinner with Nikolaus Bachler and Antonio Pappano awaits you directly at MUSA.

The trip is guided on site by Max-Joseph Groß. He is available for all your questions and wishes.
